3. Significant accounting policies

In the preparation and presentation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the Credicorp's Management has complied with International Financial Reporting Standards - IFRS as of December 31, 2003 and 2002. Significant accounting principles and practices used in the preparation of Credicorp's consolidated financial statements are described below:

(a) Basis of presentation and use of estimates -

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards - IFRS. These consolidated financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention, except where otherwise stated.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of significant events in notes to the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The most significant estimates comprised in the accompanying consolidated financial statements are related to the computation of the allowance for credit losses, the measurement of financial instruments, the reserves for assets seized through legal actions and the valuation of derivatives. The accounting criteria used for each of these items are described below.

(b) Principles of consolidation -

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which effective control is transferred to the Group and are no longer consolidated from the date of disposal. The consolidated financial statements incorporate the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses of Credicorp and its subsidiaries. All inter-company transactions, balances and unrealized surpluses and deficits between Group companies have been eliminated. Where necessary, the accounting policies used by subsidiaries have been changed to ensure consistency with IFRS.

The companies that comprise the Group as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, with an indication of the percentage of participation owned directly and indirectly by Credicorp as of those dates, as well as other relevant information, based on information obtained before the eliminations to be considered for consolidation purposes are as follows:

(c) Foreign currency translation -

The Group considers that its measurement currency is the U.S. dollar, because it reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and the circumstances relevant to the Group; insofar its main operations and/or transactions in the different countries where the Group operates, such as, the loans granted, the financing obtained, the sale of insurance premiums, the interest income and expenses, the salaries and the purchases are established and liquidated in U.S. dollars.

Credicorp's subsidiaries maintain their accounting records in currencies of the countries in which operates. The subsidiaries are considered as foreign operations, as consequence, for consolidation purposes; they prepare their financial statements in U.S. dollars (their measurement currency) using the following methodology:

- Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in non-U.S. dollars currencies are translated to U.S. dollars equivalents using the free market exchange rates at the balance sheet date.

- Non-monetary accounts have been translated into U.S. dollars using the free market exchange rates on the date of the transactions.

- Revenues and expenses, except for those related to non-monetary assets, are translated monthly at weighted average exchange rates, with resulting gains and losses included in income.

The resulting translation adjustment into U.S. dollars is included in the consolidated statement of income.

(d) Financial instruments -

Financial instruments are classified as assets, liabilities or equity according to the substance of the contractual agreement that originated them. Interest, dividends, gains and losses relating to financial instruments classified as assets or liabilities are accounted for as expense or income. Financial instruments are offset when the Bank has a legally enforceable right to offset them and Management has the intention to settle them on a net basis or to realize the assets and charge off the liability simultaneously.

Financial assets and liabilities carried on the balance sheet include cash and due from banks, trading and available-for-sale securities, loans, accounts receivable and the liabilities. In addition, all derivative instruments and indirect loans (unfunded commitments) are considered to be financial instruments. The specific accounting policies on recognition and measurement of these items are disclosed in the accounting policies described in this note.

(e) Recognition of revenues and expenses for banking activities -

Interest income and expenses are recognized in the income statements on an accrual basis using the effective interest method; interest rates are determined based on free negotiations with clients.

Interest income is suspended when loans become doubtful of collection problems, such as when overdue by more than 90 days or when the borrower or securities' issuer defaults, if earlier than 90 days. Such income is excluded from interest income until received. Uncollected income on such loans is reversed against income.

When Management determines that the debtor's financial condition has improved, the accounting recording of interest thereon is reestablished on an accrual basis.

Interest income includes coupons earned on fixed income investment and trading securities and the accrued discount and premium on financial instruments. Dividends are recognized as income when they are declared.

Commissions on financial and banking services are recognized as income on an accrual basis when earned.

All other revenues and expenses are recognized on an accrual basis as earned or incurred.

(f) Recognition of revenues and expenses for insurance activities -

Premiums from long-term contracts, mainly life insurance, are recorded when due earned. Premiums from short-term insurance contracts, mainly credit, life, accident and health policies, are earned over the related contract period. In this regard, a reserve for unearned premiums is recorded representing the unexpired portion of premium coverage to be applied in the following period on the basis of annual renewals.

The reserve for unearned premiums is calculated on an individual basis for each policy or coverage certificate, applying to the insurance premiums (direct insurance and reinsurance accepted premiums less ceded premiums), net of commissions and taxes, the unearned portion of the total risk (in number of days). Likewise, a premium deficiency reserve is made when the reserve for unearned premiums becomes insufficient to cover the risks and future expenses that correspond to the unexpired period of coverage at the date of calculation.

Management, on the basis of periodical reviews of the clients' portfolio, determines the allowance for doubtful accounts related to premiums and installments outstanding.

Casualty claims are recorded when reported. The incurred but not reported claims (IBNR) are estimated and reflected as a liability, net of recoveries and reinsurance. The IBNR at December 31, 2003 and 2002, have been estimated by taking into consideration the arithmetic progression of the percentages computed over the actual figures for the past seven years. Management considers that the estimated amount is sufficient to cover any liability related to IBNR at December 31, 2003 and 2002. In determining insurance policy reserves, the Group performs a continuing review of its overall position, its reserving techniques and its reinsurance. A qualified actuary employed by the Group also reviews the reserves periodically. Since the reserves are based on estimates, the ultimate liability may be more or less than such reserves. The effects of changes in such estimated reserves are included in the results of operations in the period in which the estimates are changed.

Policy acquisition costs (commissions) are deferred and subsequently amortized over the period in which the related premiums are earned.

(g) Loans and allowance for credit losses -

Direct loans are recorded when disbursement of funds to the clients are made. Indirect (off-balance sheets) loans are recorded when documents supporting such facilities are issued.

Credicorp classifies its loan portfolio into one of four categories based upon the purpose of the loan; these categories are: (i) commercial, (ii) micro-business, (iii) consumer and (iv) residential mortgage. Also, Credicorp considers as refinanced or restructured those loans that change their payment schedules due to difficulties in the debtor's ability to repay the loan.

An allowance for credit losses is established if there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original contractual terms of loans, for such purpose, Credicorp classifies all its loans into one of five risk categories, depending upon the degree of risk of nonpayment of each loan. The categories used by Credicorp are: (i) normal, (ii) potential problems, (iii) substandard, (iv) doubtful and (v) loss. Credicorp reviews its loan portfolio on a continuing basis in order to assess the completion and accuracy of its classification. For commercial loans the classification take into consideration several factors, such as the payment history of the particular loan, the history of Credicorp's dealings with the borrower management, operating history, repayment capability and availability of funds of the borrower, status of any collateral or guarantee, the borrower's financial statements, general risk of the sector in which the borrower operates, the borrower's risk classification made by other financial institutions in the market and other relevant factors. For micro-business, consumer and residential mortgage, the classification is based on how long payments are overdue.

The allowance for credit losses is established based in the risk classifications and taking into consideration the guarantees and collateral obtained by the Group. Only the collateral received classified as "preferred", "highly liquid preferred" or "self-liquidating preferred" are considered acceptable. Such collateral must be relatively liquid, have legally documented ownership, have no liens outstanding and have updated independent appraisals.

The allowance for credit losses also covers the estimated losses for impaired loans not specifically identified (loans classified as normal). This allowance is estimated based on historical and other relevant information.

In the case of borrowers in countries where there is an increased risk of difficulties in servicing external debt, an assessment of the political and economic situation is made, and an additional country risk provisions is accounted for.

When a loan is uncollectible, it is written off against the related allowance for credit losses; subsequent recoveries are credited to the provision for credit losses in the consolidated statement of income.

All loans considered impaired (such classified as potential problem, substandard, doubtful and loss) are analyzed by the Groups' management, taking into consideration the present value of their expected cash flows, including the recoverable amounts of the guarantees and collateral, discounted at the original effective interest rate of each loan. Based on this analysis, management believes that the methodology used on a continuous and consistent basis by the Group, provides an allowance for credit losses that is in accordance with the requirements established by IFRS.

(h) Leasing transactions -

The Group granted only finance leases and recognized the present value of the lease payments as a loan. The difference between the gross receivable amount and the present value of the loan is recognized as unearned interest. Lease income is recognized over the term of the lease using the effective interest method, which reflects a constant periodic rate of return.

(i) Investments -

As from 2001, the Group classified its investments in accordance with IAS 39. Management determines the classification of its investments at the date of their purchase and evaluates such classification periodically. On January 1st, 2001, the Group recognized as a credit to retained earnings, the effect of the adoption of IAS 39, related to the accounting treatment of the investments available-for-sale for US$4.5 million.

The purchases and sales of investments are recognized at the date of the negotiation that corresponds to the date in which the Group commits itself to buy or sell the assets.

Investments acquired, including those directly from the issuer, mainly with the purpose of generating profits based on short-term price fluctuations, are considered as trading investments. Investments available-for-sale are those that the Group intends to hold for an undefined period and can be sold in response to liquidity needs or changes in market interest rates.

Trading investments and investments available-for-sale are initially recognized at cost, including the inherent costs of the transaction and subsequently are valued at their fair value.

Fair values are based primarily on quoted prices or, if quoted market prices are not available, discounted expected cash flows using market rates commensurate with the credit quality and maturity of the investment. All related realized and unrealized gains and losses of trading securities are included in the income statement. Unrealized gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of securities classified as investments available-for-sale are recognized in equity, net of the related deferred income taxes and minority interest. Unrealized gains or losses are recognized in income of the year when the investments available-for-sale are sold or are impaired.

Securities sold subject to repurchase agreements (“repos”) are retained in the financial statements as investment securities and the counterparty liability is included in amounts due to banks and correspondents. Securities purchased under agreements to resell (“reverse repos”) are recorded as other accounts receivable. The difference between sale and repurchase price is treated as interest and accrued over the life of repo agreements using the effective yield method.

(j) Property, furniture and equipment -

Property, furniture and equipment are stated at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation. Maintenance and repair costs are charged to profit and loss and significant renewals and improvements are capitalized. The cost and accumulated depreciation of assets sold or retired are eliminated from the corresponding accounts and the related gain or loss is included in the results of the year. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings and other construction	33
Installations	10
Furniture and fixtures	10
Equipment and vehicles	5

The useful life assigned and depreciation method selected are periodically reviewed to ensure that the method and period of depreciation chosen are consistent with the economic benefit and life expectations for use of property, furniture and equipment items.

(k) Assets seized -

Assets seized are recorded at their estimated market value, obtained from valuations made by independent appraisals.

(l) Intangible -

Intangible included in the “Other assets” caption of the consolidated balance sheets comprise mainly intangible assets arising from acquisitions and the internal development of software used in Credicorp Ltd. and its subsidiaries operations. These assets are amortized using the straight-line method based on their estimated useful life, which are from 3 to 5 years.

(m) Goodwill -

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the net assets of the acquired subsidiary undertaking at the date of acquisition. Annually, goodwill is subject to an impairment test to assess whether the carrying amount is fully recoverable. A write down is made if the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount.

Goodwill on the acquisition of ASHC and PPS at the date of the exchange of shares (market value), which amounted to US$43.7 million, is being amortized using the straight-line method over a 20 year-period. Goodwill originated by the acquisition of Solución Financiera de Crédito del Perú S.A. for US$8 million, is amortized over a period of 5 years, note 10(c).

(n) Due from customers on acceptances -

Due from customers on acceptances corresponds to accounts receivable from customers for importation and exportation transactions, whose obligations have been accepted by the banks. The obligations that must be assumed by the Group for such transactions are recorded as liabilities.

(o) Bonds issued -

Liabilities arising from the issuance of subordinated bonds, leasing bonds, mortgage bonds and mortgage notes are recorded at their face value and the corresponding interest is recognized in the consolidated statements of income on an accrued basis. Bond discounts determined at issuance are deferred and amortized over the term of the bonds using the effective interest method.

(p) Provisions -

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made. Provisions are reviewed in each period and are adjusted to reflect Management’s best estimate as of the consolidated balance sheet date. The amount recorded as a provision is equal to the present value of future payments expected to be needed to settle the obligation.

The provision for employees’ severance indemnities is based in the accrued liabilities determined at the end of each year based on the current salary of each employee.

(q) Contingencies -

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements. They are disclosed in the notes unless the possibility of an outflow of economic resources is remote.

Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements; however, they are disclosed when their contingency degree is probable.

(r) Workers' profit sharing and income tax -

Income tax and workers' profit sharing are computed based on individual financial statements of Credicorp and each one of its subsidiaries, based on accounting principles that are different from IFRS (tax basis) and, therefore, the accounting for income tax and workers' profit sharing in accordance with IFRS are both in accordance with the principles of IAS 12.

Deferred income tax and deferred workers' profit sharing reflect the effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for accounting purposes and the amounts determined for tax purposes. Deferred assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates expected to be applied to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or eliminated. The measurement of deferred assets and deferred liabilities reflects the tax consequences that arise from the manner in which Credicorp and its subsidiaries expect, at the consolidated balance sheet date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized regardless of when the timing differences are likely to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized when it is probable that sufficient taxable income will be generated against which the deferred assets can be offset. At the consolidated balance sheet date, Credicorp assesses unrecognized deferred assets and the carrying amount of recognized deferred assets. Credicorp may recognize a previously unrecognized deferred assets to the extent that it has become probable that future tax benefits will allow their recovery or reduce a deferred asset to the extent that it is not probable that Credicorp and its subsidiaries will have sufficient tax benefits that would enable it to use part or the entire recognized deferred asset for accounting purposes.

Credicorp determines its deferred income tax considering the tax rate applicable to its undistributed earnings; any additional tax on dividends distribution is recorded on the date a liability for that concept is recognized.

(s) Earnings per share -

Basic and diluted earnings per share are computed based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the period, after deducting treasury stock. For the years ending December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, Credicorp has no financial instruments with dilutive effects; therefore, basic and diluted earnings per share are the same.

(t) Supplementary plan for workers' profit sharing -

Profit sharing participations have been granted to certain executives and employees who have at least one year of service in Credicorp or any of its subsidiaries in the form of options on stock appreciation rights over certain number of Credicorp's shares. Such options are granted at the market price of the shares of Credicorp on the date of the grant and are exercisable at that price, allowing the worker to obtain a gain from the difference between the market price of the share at the date of execution and the fixed exercise price, note 16. Expense recognized in income for the year corresponds to the difference between the strike price and the market price of the shares of the options that can be exercisable by the beneficiaries at the consolidated balance sheet date.

When Credicorp reprise or change the terms of the options, additional compensation is recorded equal to the difference between the liquidation price and the new market price of the underlying shares.

(u) Derivative financial instruments -

Transactions with derivatives, while providing effective economic hedges under the Group's risk management positions, do not qualify for hedge accounting under the specific rules of IAS 39 and are therefore treated as derivatives held for trading.

Derivative financial instruments are initially recognized in the consolidated balance sheet at cost and subsequently are remeasured at their fair value. Fair values are obtained based on market exchange rates or interest rates. All derivatives are carried as assets when fair value is positive and as liabilities when fair value is negative. Gain and losses for changes in their fair value are recorded in the consolidated statements of income.

(v) Cash and cash equivalents -

For the purposes of the consolidated cash flow statements, cash and cash equivalents comprise balances with less than three months maturity from the date of acquisition, including cash, balances with central banks, overnight deposits and amounts due from banks.

(w) Financial statements as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 -

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior years financial statements to conform to current year presentation.

These funds are deposited in the vaults of the Bank and in the BCRP, and are within the limits established by prevailing legislation.

Reserve funds kept in BCRP do not earn interest, except for the part of the demandable reserve in foreign currency that exceeds the minimum legal reserve. As of December 31, 2003, the monthly excess amounts to approximately US$884.1 million and earns interest in US Dollars at an annual rate of 1.05 percent (US$897.8 million and earned interest in US Dollars at an annual rate of 1.28 percent as of December 31, 2002).

Other	-	42,453
	84,122	589,976
Total	98,150	605,104

The reduction of the trading securities balance in relation to the previous year is explained by the Group's management decision to discontinue the trading activities mainly with BCRP certificates of deposit, in order to maintain a more stable position in this kind of investments which have a better yield, less risk and volatility. As result; after the liquidation of the balance maintained as of December 31, 2002 during the year 2003, the new purchases of those and other investments have been classified as available-for-sale, see note 6.

(b) The Peruvian Treasury bonds are issued in Peruvian Currency by the Economic and Financial Ministry, have an active market quotation in the Peruvian market and are traded daily with third parties. In this transaction, Deutsche Bank AG. of Germany acted as trustee for the securitization operation. This obligation will be paid through the transfers of funds corresponding to the future inflows to be received by BCP from Visa International, which will be deposited directly by Visa International in a special account managed by Deutsche Bank A.G. of Germany. 14. Shareholders' equity

(a) Capital stock -

As of December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, the capital stock is represented by 94,382,317 outstanding common shares, with a par value of US$5.

(b) Treasury stock -

Treasury stock corresponds to the nominal value of Credicorp's shares owned by Group companies, which amounts to 14,634,925 shares as of December 31, 2003 and 2002 (14,920,825 shares as of December 31, 2001). The difference between the acquisition cost of US$186.5 million and their par value of US$73.2 million is recorded as a capital surplus.

(c) Reserves -

In accordance with the laws that regulate financial and insurance activities of the Group's subsidiaries, they are required to establish a reserve of up to at least 35 percent of their paid-in capital through annual transfers of at least 10 percent of their net income. These reserves amount to approximately US$247.1 y US$242.1 million as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Credicorp has recorded similar reserves on a consolidated basis, which are not subject to any restriction.

(d) Dividends distribution -

During 2003, 2002 and 2001, Credicorp paid cash dividends for approximately US$23.9, US$16.0 and US$8 million, respectively. In addition, in 2001 the Board of Directors agreed to distribute an extraordinary dividend of approximately US$15.9 million related to the gain generated by the Group on the sale of the Union de Cerveceras Peruanas Backus y Johnston S.A. shares.

In accordance with current Peruvian legislation, there is no restriction for overseas remittance of dividends or the repatriation of foreign investment. According to note 15, since 2003 the tax regime applicable to dividends has been modified.

(e) Shareholders' equity for legal purposes (Regulatory capital) -

The regulatory capital for the subsidiaries engaged on financial activities (hereafter "the financial group") amounted approximately to US$809.4 million and US$820.1 million as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. This regulatory capital has been determined in accordance with the Superintendencia de Banca y Seguros del Perú regulations in force as of such dates. The assets and indirect credits weighted by credit risk, determined by the financial group, amount approximately to US$5,367.3 million and US$576.9 million, respectively, generating a global ratio for credit and market risk of 10.8 times the regulatory capital of the financial group as of December 31, 2003 (9.6 times as of December 31, 2002). According to the Banking law, this ratio cannot be more than 11 times higher than regulatory capital.

15. Taxes

(a) Credicorp is not subject to any type of income taxes, nor taxes on capital gains, equity or property. The Peruvian subsidiaries are subject to corporate taxation on income under the Peruvian Tax system. The statutory income tax rate payable in Peru is 27 percent of taxable income (as of December 31, 2001 the income tax rate was 30 percent which could be reduced to 20 percent for the re-invested portion of the taxable income of the subsidiaries).

ASHC and its subsidiaries are not subject to taxes in the Cayman Islands nor Panama. For the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, no taxable income was generated from its operations in the United States of America.

A reconciliation of the differences between the statutory income tax rate and the effective tax rate for the Group is shown as follows:

	2003 %	2002 %	2001 %
Peruvian statutory tax rate	27.00	27.00	30.00
Increase (decrease) in the statutory tax rate due to:
(i) Increase (decrease) arising from net income of subsidiaries not domiciled in Peru	6.00	8.00	(2.00)
(ii) Non-taxable costs (income), net	(2.00)	3.00	(8.00)
(iii) Adjustment of deferred income tax for changes in rates	2.00	-	3.00
Effective income tax rate	33.00	38.00	23.00

(b) In 2003, 2002 and 2001, the deferred income tax has been calculated on all temporary differences applied at an income tax rate of 30 percent for 2003 and 27 percent for 2002 and 2001. The income tax expense analysis as of December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, is as follows:

	2003 US$(000)	2002 US$(000)	2001 US$(000)
Current -
Peruvian	33,206	34,344	23,266
In other countries	2,079	399	347
	35,285	34,743	23,613
Deferred -
Peruvian	982	(2,115)	392
Adjustment of deferred income tax for change in rates	3,428	-	1,130
	4,410	(2,115)	1,522
Total	39,695	32,628	25,135

A portion of the Group's deferred tax asset arises from part of the provisions for sundry risks and for credit losses, which are not deductible for income tax purposes until they comply with all the requirements established by the tax authorities. Therefore, the Group has recorded an accumulated deferred tax asset (including the effect of the workers' profit sharing) to reflect the future tax benefit of the deduction of these provisions.

The Group's deferred tax liability arises mainly from the depreciation of certain buildings from the BCP and PPS that is not acceptable for tax purposes and from leasing operations.

The following table shows a summary of the Group's deferred income taxes:

	2003 US$(000)	2002 US$(000)

Other	(794)	(4,491)
Deferred income tax liabilities	(23,022)	(25,085)
Net deferred income tax liability	(2,717)	(12,227)

(c) As of December 31, 2002, ASHC's Miami agency had United States federal tax loss carry forwards available to reduce future taxable income, if any, for approximately US$17.9 million. Due to the uncertainty regarding the Agency's ability to generate future federal and state taxable income needed to utilize the net deferred tax assets, the net deferred tax assets related to those tax loss carry-forward were not recorded. Such tax loss carry-forward was not recovered because the agency ceased operations during the year 2003.

(d) The Peruvian tax authorities have the right to review and, if necessary, amend the annual tax returns of the Peruvian subsidiaries. Fiscal years 2001 through 2003, inclusive, are pending review by the tax authorities. Any additional tax arising as a result of examination by the tax authorities will be charged to income in the year when such tax is determined, if any. At present, it is not possible to estimate the adjustments that the tax authorities may determine. However, in Management's opinion, it is not expected that any additional assessments will be determined in amounts considered significant to the consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2003 and 2002.

16. Stock option rights

As indicated in note 3(t), Credicorp has granted options over Credicorp's stock appreciation rights to certain key executives and employees who have at least one year's service in Credicorp or any of its subsidiaries. The options expire after eight (8) years and 25 percent of the appreciation rights granted may be exercised during each of the first four years of the plan.

At the end of the fourth year and until the expiration date of the option, all or a portion of the options that are still outstanding under the plan may be exercised at any time. As of December 31, 2003, 298,500 appreciation rights had been exercised (1,250 as of December 31, 2002) under this plan for an approximate amount of US$1 million.

The number of stock appreciation rights options outstanding and the price of such rights at December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 are as follows:

Year	Number of shares	2003 US$	2002 US$	2001 US$
1999	366,000	8.94	9.09	9.39
2000	429,000	10.10	10.25	10.50
2001	481,500	6.90	7.05	7.30
2002	515,000	8.58	8.73	-
2003	569,750	9.77	-	-

In 2003 and 2002, the Group has recorded a provision for those options that could be executed corresponding to the difference between the price of the option and the quoted price at the consolidated balance sheet date (1,555,813 and 1,240,875, respectively), amounting approximately to US$8.4 and US$0.9 million, respectively. The provisions were recorded in the caption "Remunerations and employees' benefits" of the consolidated statement of income. The quoted price of the Credicorp's shares in the New York Stock Exchange as of December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 was US$13.35, US$9.4 and US$8.75, respectively.

In 2003 and 2002, the options prices were modified and informed to the executives of the Group.

17. Off-balance sheet accounts

(a) This item is made up as follows:

	2003 US$(000)	2002 US$(000)
Contingent credits
Guarantees and stand by letters (c)	629,944	816,844
Import and export letters of credit (c)	152,942	140,086
	782,886	956,930
Responsibilities under credit lines agreements	570,276	188,428
Financial derivative contracts, net (d)	135,647	269,500
Swaps contracts (e)	98,083	10,784
Total	1,586,892	1,425,642

(b) In the normal course of its business, the Group's banking subsidiaries are party to transactions with off balance sheet risk. These transactions expose the Group's banking subsidiaries to credit risk in addition to the amounts recognized in the consolidated balance sheet. Credit risk for off-balance sheet financial instruments is defined as the possibility of sustaining a loss because any other party to a financial instrument fails to perform in accordance with the terms of the contract. The Group's exposure to losses under commitments to extend credit, provide export and import letters of credit and guarantees is represented by the contractual amount specified in these instruments. The Group uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance sheet instruments, including the requirement to obtain collateral to support off-balance sheet financial instruments, note 7, when it is deemed necessary. Collateral held varies, but may include deposits held in financial institutions, securities or other assets.

Due to the fact that many of the contingent transactions are expected to expire without any performance being required, the total committed amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements.

(c) Export and import letters of credit and guarantees and stand by letters are conditional commitments issued by the Group to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Export and import letters of credit are mainly issued as credit enhancements for overseas commercial transactions. Risks associated with these credits are reduced by the participation of third parties.

(d) As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, Credicorp has as transactions with derivatives commitments related to purchase and sale agreements for foreign currency forwards. Foreign currency forwards are commitments to buy or sell currency at a future date at a contracted price. Risk arises from the possibility that the counter-party to the transaction does not perform as agreed. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, forward foreign currency purchase and sale agreements referred to above include nominal amounts of approximately US$313.9 and US$530.6 million, respectively, see note 22, with maturities not greater than one year. These agreements are executed to satisfy client requirements and are recognized in the financial statements at fair market value.

(e) Interest rate swaps are derivatives contracts, which exchange of variable interest rates for fixed interest rates. The risk arises each time the projected level of the variable rate during the term of the operation is higher than the swap rate, as well as from non-compliance with contractual terms by one of the parties. As of December 2003, the notional amount of interest rate swap contracts in force was approximately US$98.1 million (approximately US$10.8 million at December 31, 2002). These contracts are recorded at fair market value.

18. Net premiums earned

In the ordinary course of its business PPS, Credicorp's subsidiary, engages in insurance activities and transfers reinsurance to other insurance companies to share the risk of its insurance contracts and to limit the potential losses arising from significant coverage. PPS is ultimately responsible for the payment of claims to the policyholder if the reinsurer is unable to meet its obligations.

Reinsurance includes shared quotas, excess of loss and facultative reinsurance. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers are estimated on a basis consistent with the associated claim liabilities and are presented as a component of reinsured assets.

Net premiums earned for the three years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001 are as follows:

21. Financial information by industry and geographical area

The Group is organized on two main lines of business: banking and insurance. The operations between the business segments are carried out under normal terms and conditions of business.

The banking business includes services related with loans and other credit facilities to corporate clients, consumer and mortgage credits, debit and credit cards, savings and deposits, overdrafts, custody services, among others.

The insurance business includes the issuance of policies of insurance to cover claims that clients can suffer, such as fires, vehicles, transport, personal accidents and life insurance, among others.

Other activities developed by the Group comprise intermediation activities in the Peruvian stock market, trusteeship and administration of funds.

The following table presents the Group's financial information by industry (primary segment) and geographical area (secondary segment) for the three years ended December 31, 2003:

22. Financial instruments

The Group's activities are mainly related to the use of financial instruments including derivatives. The Group accepts deposits from customers at both fixed and floating rates and for various periods and seeks to earn above average interest margins by investing these funds in high quality assets. The Group seeks to increase these margins by consolidating short-term funds and lending for longer periods at higher rates while maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet all claims that might fall due.

The Group also seeks to raise its interest margins by obtaining above average margins, net of provisions, through lending to commercial and retail borrowers with a range of credit standings. Such exposures involve not just on-balance sheet loans and advances but the Group also enters into guarantees and other commitments such as letters of credit and security letters.

The Group also trades in financial instruments where it takes positions in traded and over the counter instruments, including derivatives, to take advantage of short-term market movements in the equity and bond markets and in currency and interest rates. Management places trading limits on the level of exposure that can be taken in relation to both overnight and intra-day market positions. Entering into counterbalancing positions, thereby controlling the variability in the net cash amounts required to liquidate market positions, normally offsets foreign exchange exposures associated with derivatives.

Market risks -

The Group takes on exposure to market risks. Market risks arise from open positions in interest rate, currency and equity products, all of which are exposed to general and specific market movements. The Group applies a "value at risk" methodology to estimate the market risk of position held and the maximum losses expected, based upon a number of assumptions for various changes in market conditions. The management sets limits on the value of risk that may be accepted, which is monitored on a daily basis.

The daily market value at risk measure (VAR) is an estimate, of the potential loss that might arise if the current positions were to be held unchanged for one business day. The measurement is structured so that daily losses exceeding the VAR figure should occur, on average, not more than once every day. Actual outcomes are monitored regularly to test the validity of the assumptions and parameters used in the VAR calculation.

Since VAR constitutes an integral part of the Group's market risk control regime, management for all trading and portfolio operations establishes VAR limits. However, the use of this approach does not prevent losses outside the limits established in the even of more significant market movements.

Liquidity risk -

The Group is expose to daily calls on its available cash resources from overnight deposits, current accounts, maturing deposits, loan drawdowns, guarantees and other calls. The Group does not maintain cash resources to meet all of these needs as experience shows that a minimum level of reinvestment of maturing funds can be predicted with a high level of certainty. The Management of the Group subsidiaries sets limits on the minimum proportion of maturing funds available to meet such calls and on the minimum level of Interbank and other borrowing facilities that should be in place to cover withdrawals at unexpected levels of demands.

The notes to the financial statements include an analysis of the assets and liabilities of the Group by maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date.

Liquidity requirements to support calls under guarantees and standby letters of credit are considerably less than the amount of the commitment because the Group does not generally expect the third party to draw funds under the agreement. The total outstanding contractual amount of commitments to extend credit does not necessarily represent future cash requirements, since many of these commitments will expire or terminate without being funded.

Interest rate risk -

The Group is exposed to the effects of fluctuations in the prevailing levels of market interest rates on its financial position and cash flows. Interest margins may increase as a result of such changes but may reduce or create losses in the event that unexpected movements arise. The Management of the Group sets limits on the level of mismatch of interest rate reprising that may be undertaken. These limits are monitored daily; however, the Group is mainly engaged in providing short-term financing, at variable interest rates. Resources for trading finance are mainly obtained from short-term liabilities, the interests of which are agreed at fixed and variable rates prevailing in the markets that are located the Groups' subsidiaries.

Loans, customer deposits and other financing instruments are subject to risks derived from interest rate fluctuations. The relevant contract maturity characteristics and interest rates of such financial instruments are disclosed in notes 7, 11 and 13.

Currency risk -

Most assets and liabilities are maintained in U.S. dollars. Foreign currency transactions are made at the free market exchange rates of the countries where Credicorp's subsidiaries are established. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002 the Group's assets and liabilities by currencies are as follows:

Credit risk -

Credit risk is mainly controlled through the evaluation and analysis of each transaction considering such aspects as credit concentration of economic groups, evaluation of economic sectors, portfolio foreseen losses, guarantees and requirements for working capital according to market risks.

Financial assets which show a potential credit risk are mainly cash and cash equivalents, interest bearing deposits in banks, trading securities, investments available-for-sale, loans and other assets. The exposure to any one borrower including banks and investments, is further restructured by sub limits covering on and off-balance sheet exposures and daily delivery risk limits to trading items. Actual exposure against limits are monitored daily.

Fair value -

Fair value is defined as the amount for which an asset could be exchanged or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transactions, assuming an on going enterprise.

When a financial instrument is traded in an active and liquid market, its quoted market price in an actual transaction provides the best evidence of its respective fair value. When a quoted market price is not available, or may not be indicative of the fair value of the instrument, to determine such fair value, the current market value of another instrument that is substantially similar, discounted cash flow analysis or other estimation techniques may be used, all of which are significantly affected by the assumptions used. Although management uses its best judgment in estimating the fair value of these financial instruments, there are inherent weaknesses in any estimation technique. As a result, the fair value may not be indicative of the net realizable or liquidation value.

A significant portion of the Group' assets and liabilities are short-term financial instruments, with a remaining maturity of under one-year. These short-term financial instruments, with the exception of those for which an active market exists, are considered to have a fair value equivalent to their carrying value at the balance sheet date.

The methodologies and assumptions used depend on the terms and risk characteristics of the various instruments and include the following:

- Cash and due from banks represent cash and short-term deposits that do not represent significant credit risks; in consequence, their fair value are equivalent to their book value.

- Trading securities and investments available-for-sale are generally quoted in stock exchange. Interest earning assets and liabilities with an original maturity of less than one year have been assumed to have a fair value not materially different from book value.

- Market value of loans is similar to their book values, because such loans are mainly of a short-term nature and are shown net of their respective allowance for loan losses, which are considered by Management as the estimated amount recoverable at the date of the consolidated financial statements.

- Market value of deposits and obligations is similar to their book value; principally because of their liquid nature and that the interest rates are comparable with the interest rate of other similar liabilities.

- Due to banks and correspondents generate interest contracted at variable interest rates and preferred rates. As a result, it is considered that their book value is similar to their market value.

- As disclosed in note 17, the Group has various commitments to extend credit, open documentary credits and outstanding guarantees and it has received guarantees in endorsement of the granted credits. Based on the level of fees currently charged from granting such commitments and open documentary credits, taking into account maturity and interest rates, together with the present creditworthiness of the counterparties, the difference between the book value and the fair value is not material. Because of the uncertainty involved in assessing the likelihood and timing of guarantees being drawn, coupled with the lack of an established market, it is not practical for the Group to determine the estimated fair value for outstanding guarantees.

Derivatives instruments -

Except for currency forwards and interest rate swaps, as indicated in note 17(d) and (e), the Group does not enter into other agreements, generally described as derivative transactions. The Group records these derivatives at their fair market value; therefore there are no differences with their book values.

Currency forward contracts represent commitments to purchase or sell foreign and domestic currency on a specified term. In these contracts there are not cash flows at the beginning of the transaction. The payments are made at the date of expiration, when surrendering and receiving local or foreign currency if it is buying or selling, respectively.

The Group maintains strict control on the limits and net derivative positions. For the foreign currency contracts and swaps of interest rates maximum levels have been established for the net maximum positions without hedge and a "stop loss" limit for the maximum levels of loss that the Group is willing to assume.

The notional amounts of forward contracts provide a basis for comparison with instruments recognized on the balance sheet but do not necessarily indicate the amounts of future cash flows involved or the current fair value of the instruments and, therefore, do not indicate the Group's exposure to credit or price risks. The derivative instruments become favorable (assets) or unfavorable (liabilities) as a result of fluctuations in foreign exchange rates and interest rates relative to their terms. The aggregate contractual or notional amount of derivative financial instruments outstanding, and their aggregate fair value can fluctuate significantly from time to time.

As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the notional amounts of the outstanding contracts are approximately US$313.9 and US$530.6 million, respectively, which have maturities of less than a year. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002 the forward contracts net position is an oversell of U.S. dollars of approximately US$135.6 and US$269.5 million, respectively. The fair value of the asset and liability forward contracts as of December 31, 2003 amounted approximately to US$4.0 and US$1.1 million, respectively (approximately US$8.2 and US$0.2 million as of December 31, 2002), and are included under the caption "Other assets and other liabilities" of the consolidated balance sheet, respectively. In addition, as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the notional amount of the outstanding swap contracts amounted to US$98.1 and US$10.8 million, respectively.

23. Transactions with related parties and affiliated companies

Certain shareholders, directors and officers of the Group have been involved, directly and indirectly, in credit transactions with certain subsidiaries of the Group, as permitted by Peruvian Law 26702, which regulates and limits certain transactions with employees, directors and officers of a bank or an insurance company. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, loans and other credits to employees of the Group are as follows:

	2003 US$(000)	2002 US$(000)
Mortgage loans	9,503	16,114
Other loans	1,841	4,797
Total	11,344	20,911

As of December 31, loans and other contingent credits to related parties comprise:

Direct loans	66,474	73,195
Contingent loans	6,905	10,468
Total	73,379	83,663

As of December 31, 2003, direct and contingent credits to related companies comprise approximately 1.46 and 0.88 percent, respectively (1.49 percent and 1.09 percent, respectively, as of December 31, 2002), of the total portfolio of direct loans of the Group, which are ranked in the following risk categories:

	2003 %	2002 %
Normal	59.5	34.8
Potential problems	34.4	46.3
Substandard	6.1	14.8
Doubtful	-	4.1
Total	100.0	100.0

All loans, insurance and services to related parties were made on terms no more favorable than would have been offered to the general public.

In addition, the Group has investments available-for-sale in related entities for approximately US$9.0 and US$20.0 as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Description of Business

Credicorp was formed in 1995 for the purposes of acquiring through an exchange offer (the "Exchange Offer") the common shares of BCP, ASHC and PPS. Pursuant to the Exchange Offer, in October 1995, Credicorp acquired 90.1% of BCP; 98.2% of ASHC; and 75.8% of PPS. Credicorp's shares began to be traded in the New York Stock Exchange, immediately after finishing the exchange offer, with a closing price at such date of US$11.61 (adjusted for stock dividends). Credicorp also owns 99.99% of Inversiones Credito, which is a non-financial entity with long-term investments.

BCP began operations in 1889 as Banco Italiano and changed its name to Banco de Crédito del Perú in 1941. BCP has been the largest commercial bank in Peru since the 1920s.

ASHC was organized in December 1981 as a wholly owned subsidiary of BCP, under the name Crédito Del Peru Holding Corporation ("BCP International"), in the Cayman Islands and became the first Peruvian bank to establish an offshore banking presence to serve its Peruvian customers. In 1983, BCP distributed the shares of BCP International as dividends to the shareholders of BCP to protect its privately held status in the event BCP were nationalized. BCP International established its first physical presence offshore (previously having been operated through BCP's corporate offices) by opening an office in Panama in 1984, and in 1986 opened an agency in Miami and changed its name to Atlantic Security Holding Corporation.

PPS was formed in 1992 as a result of a merger between El Pacífico Compañía de Seguros y Reaseguros S.A. and Compañía de Seguros y Reaseguros Peruano-Suiza S.A., and is the largest Peruvian insurance company.

Additionally, in January of 1997, Credicorp purchased 99.99% of Banco Tequendama, a Colombian bank with US$390 million in assets.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A. CREDICORP LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NET INCOME

Credicorp reported a consolidated net income of US$80.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2003, 90.2% above net income of US$42.4 million in 2002, resulting in US$1.01 and US$0.53 per share, respectively. Total year 2003 results improve with respect to the preceding year mainly due to: higher non-financial revenue; increased net interest income; and, lower loan loss provisions. Increases in income could offset expense growth, which include costs due to the merger of Banco Santander Central Hispano-Peru ("BSCH-Peru") and of Solución Financiera de Crédito. In this later case, the merger process will continue into the first quarter of 2004.

Net Income from Subsidiaries

Credicorp's principal subsidiaries contributed to consolidated net income as follows:

(US$Mn)	12m02	12m03
Banco de Crédito BCP(1)	US$59.8	US$91.3
Atlantic	1.6	7.8
PPS	7.0	3.3
Banco Tequendama	-4.4	0.1

Credicorp and others(2)	-21.6	-21.9
Utilidad Neta	US$42.4	US$80.6

(1) Includes Banco de Crédito de Bolivia.

(2) Includes Inversiones Crédito, Credicorp Securities and others.

In total year 2003, the Credicorp and others concept contributed a loss of US$21.9 million mainly due to US$5.6 million of provisions for loans transferred from Banco Tequendama and US$8.7 million of investments and contingencies reserves. Total 2002 loss contribution of US$21.6 million included US$12.8 million in losses assumed in favor of Banco Tequendama and a US$3.0 million provision for investments.

In the present year, Banco de Crédito BCP contributed US$91.3 million to Credicorp's net income, greater than its results according to Peruvian accounting principles reported in Section B, which amounted to US$89.2 million. The difference is mainly due to lower translation losses registered by Credicorp. Credicorp's Dollar-based accounting showed a US$2.2 million translation loss in this year, lower than an US$11.9 million loss in BCP's records, which takes into account inflation adjustment losses and losses on foreign currency positions caused by the Nuevo Sol appreciation against the Dollar. Additionally, Credicorp considers minority interest elimination (US$3.6 million) and higher deferred taxes and expenses (US$1.3 million).

The contribution of Atlantic Security Holding Corporation of US$7.8 million for full year 2003 is below US$10.9 million net income shown in its books, due to the elimination for consolidation purposes of US$3.1 million of dividends received from Credicorp and registered as income in March of 2003.

In 2003, Credicorp received a contribution from PPS of US$3.3 million, lower than the net income of US$11.1 million in its local Peruvian GAAP books, mainly due to minority interest elimination (US$5.3 million) and to higher provisions required by IAS records.

Banco Tequendama contributed net income of US$0.1 million in full-year 2003, which does not include provision expense incurred by Credicorp of US$5.6 million for transferred loans as mentioned above.

INTEREST INCOME AND OTHER INCOME

Net interest income in 2003 was US$358.9 million, 7.1% over income earned in 2002, mostly due to higher interest earning assets, which grew 8.7%, and that offset a slight decrease in interest margins. The volume of interest earning assets, as an average between quarterly ending balances, reached US$6,683 million in this year, compared to US$6,150 million in 2002 mostly due to volume from the merger of BSCH-Peru. The net interest margin (net interest income over average interest earning assets), was 5.37% during 2003, lower than 5.45% in the prior year. During the year net interest margins decreased mostly due to lower loan rates which were not offset by lower funding costs, within a continuing overall excess of liquid funds.

Non-interest income was US$424.7 million in 2003, 13.3% above US$374.8 million in 2002. Fee revenue from banking services were US$189.5 million in 2003, higher by 12.0% compared to fees in 2002, mainly due to growth in account maintenance fees, credit cards and in brokerage and mutual funds fees. Non-interest income components were as follows:

(In US$Mn)	2002	2003	2003 vs 2002
Commissions for banking services	169.1	189.5	12.0%
Net premiums	125.2	125.1	-0.1%
Gains from sale of securities	(1.1)	1.9	N/A
Gains from foreign exchange	22.6	23.7	4.9%
Other non-interest income	59.0	84.5	43.2%
Total Non-Interest Income	374.8	424.7	13.3%

OTHER NON-INTEREST EXPENSES

Other non-interest expenses amounted to US$456.6 million in 2003, 10.6% above expenses in previous year. The increase is mainly due to non-recurrent expenses related to merger costs with BSCH-Perú and Solución Financiera, and higher contingency provisions. Credicorp's other expense components had the following variations:

(% change and US$Mn)	2002	2003	2003 vs 2002
Salaries and employee benefits	185.1	184.7	-0.2%
General, administrative, and taxes	138.4	147.6	6.6%
Depreciation and amortization	44.4	47.9	7.9%
Other	43.1	57.8	34.1%
Merger costs	1.7	18.6	1019.0%
Total Other Expenses	412.7	456.6	10.6%

The efficiency ratio, "adjusted" operating expenses (determined by netting provisions for assets received in lieu of loan repayment, employee profit sharing expenses and non-recurrent expenses) as a percentage of total income, without extraordinary concepts, was 50.6% in 2003 having been 52.1% in the same period last year. "Adjusted" operating expenses as a percentage of average total assets remained unchanged at 4.6%.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Credicorp's totals assets were US$8.3 billion at December 31, 2003, decreasing 3.7% compared to the balance of December 2002. The loan portfolio as of December 31, 2003 reached US$4.5 billion, remaining almost unchanged during the current quarter, but decrease 7.0% compared to the year-ago balance. Funds deposited in other banks decreased 26.5% in the year, since they mostly were transferred to investments in securities.

Deposits and other obligations reached US$6.3 billion at December 31, 2003 and are 7.1% lower than the December 2002 balance. Due to banks and correspondents, which closed at US$273.2 million, continued its declining trend decreasing 11.8% in the year.

The balance of past due loans decreased from US$405.3 million at year-end 2002 to US$256.5 million at December 2003, mainly due to improved loan quality, which drove the past-due ratio from 8.4% to 5.7%, respectively. During 2003 loans charged-off amounted to US$170.0 million, increasing over US$140.9 million in 2002.

Third party funds under management continued to grow reaching US$1.7 billion at year-end 2003, increasing 6.5% in the last quarter and by 25.9% since the beginning of the year.

SUBSIDIARIES

Below are brief comments on some of the subsidiaries not discussed in the following section of this report:

Atlantic Security Holding Corporation and Subsidiaries ("ASHC"), Cayman Islands

Consolidated net income for the year ended December 31, 2003 was US$10.9 million, higher than US$5.8 million in 2002. Net income in the full-year 2003 increase compared to 2002, mainly due to higher returns on the investment portfolio and lower operating expense.

Net interest income, before risk provisions and not including dividend income, was US$14.6 million in 2003, lower than US$17.4 million in the prior year. Net interest margin as a percentage of interest earning assets, without considering dividends, was 2.3% during 2003, decreasing from the 3.0% margin in preceding 2002. The margin declined mostly because of the higher weight of investment grade and lower risk fixed income securities, which lower the portfolio's return while decreasing net income volatility.

In 2003 charges against income for market risk provisions amounted to US$9.4 million, higher than US$8.1 million charged in the preceding 2002. In the current year provisions for credit risks amounted to US$2.9 million, while US$1.3 million was expensed in the prior year.

Non-interest income, which includes fee income, realized gains on securities transactions before risk provisions and others, improved to US$11.7 million in 2003, from US$2.7 million in 2002. Compared to the prior year, income increases mainly due to higher realized gains on securities transactions, which improve from a loss of US$4.0 million in 2002, to a US$7.3 million net gain in 2003. Fee income decreased to US$3.6 million in the current year, compared to US$5.3 million in 2002 mainly due to management fees and commissions transferred to affiliate companies in the U.S., after the restructuring of Credicorp's businesses in this country.

The loan portfolio, net of provisions, was US$152.4 million as of December 31, 2003, decreasing from loan balances of US$160.5 million at December 2002.

The marketable securities portfolio was US$430.1 million at December 2003, increasing over US$313.8 million at the end of 2002.

Deposits amounted to US$629.4 million at December 31, 2003, increasing from the balance of US$544.3 million at the end of December 2002.

Funds under management were US$664.1 million at December 31, 2003, growing 21.0% compared to US$549.1 million at year-end 2002. The increase is principally due to the introduction of new structured products and funds under management with higher yields than interest paid on bank deposits.

Net equity reached US$112.9 million at the end of December 2003, lower than US$129.5 million at September 2003, mainly due to the payment of US$21.7 million in dividends to Credicorp. Nevertheless, current net equity remains similar to the balance of US$110.3 million at December 2002. Compared to the year-ago period, the equity account of reserves for market value of investments increases from a balance of unrealized losses of US$7.4 million at the end of December 2002, to unrealized gains of US$11.0 million at the end of the current year, due to improved values in capital markets of the available for sale proprietary portfolio.

The ratio of operating expenses over average assets decrease to 0.9% in 2003, compared to the 1.4% ratio during 2002. This ratio declines to 0.5% in 2003, when funds under management are included within total assets, improving from 0.8% in the prior year.

El Pacifico-Peruano Suiza and Subsidiaries ("PPS"), Perú

PPS obtained in the year ended December 31, 2003 a consolidated net income of S/.38.4 million (US$11.1 million), 5.7% over net income of S/.36.3 million (US$10.5 million) in 2002. Results in year 2003 increase over profits in the prior year mainly because of higher premiums and gains on the sale of long-term investments, which offset increased reserves.

Total premiums and EPS health fees in full-year 2003 were S/.1,001.7 million (US$289.2 million), increasing 14.3% compared to 2002. Net premiums earned and health fees, net of reinsured premiums and reserves, were S/.482.7 million (US$139.4 million), 2.0% below premiums in the prior year 2002. Net premiums earned decreased mainly due to higher reserves, while health fees, net of reserves, also declined.

Additions to technical reserves for premiums grew by S/.226.8 million (US$65.5 million) in 2003, 88.3% higher than additions of S/.120.4 million (US$34.8 million) in year 2002. Most of reserves in 2003 were established by Pacifico Vida, for its life annuities and life insurance lines, and by PPS following new regulations requiring a non-recurrent adjustment for earthquake risks amounting to S/.19.4 million (US$5.6 million).

Comparing cumulative results for full-years 2003 and 2002, consolidated total premiums and fees consisted of: i) general insurance lines, that amounted to 57.5% of total premiums and increased 5.4%; ii) fees at Pacifico Salud, that were 8.2% of total premiums and decreased 7.0%; and, iii) premiums by Pacifico Vida, which amounted to 34.2% of the total and grew 42.3%.

Cumulative through December 31, 2003, growth of Pacifico Salud and the health and medical assistance insurance line (18.4% of total premiums) was 3.5%; fire insurance lines (23.5% of total premiums) increased 18.6%; while the automobile insurance line (5.6% of total premiums) decreased 10.3%. Through December 2003, pension fund benefits insurance (6.8% of total premiums) decreased 4.6%, while group life insurance and individual life insurance policies (11.0% of total premiums) grew 16.8%, and life annuities (11.5% of total premiums) increased 136.6%, compared to the prior year.

Net consolidated underwriting results was S/.66.5 million (US$19.2 million) in 2003, decreasing from S/.73.7 million (US$21.3 million) in the prior year, mainly due to the above mentioned increased reserves. The ratio of net underwriting results (net premiums and health fees less reserves and claims as a percentage of total premiums) was 6.6% in 2003, compared to the 8.4% ratio in the prior year.

Net insurance claims and health services costs incurred in 2003 were S/.345.5 million (US$99.8 million), 3.9% lower than claims in 2002. The net loss ratio (net claims to net premiums) decreases to 48.7% in the current year from 58.6% in 2002, mainly due to higher premiums, and continued improvements in the fire, auto and health insurance lines, but continues high in pension fund insurance (114.6%), health (77.8%) and in Pacifico Salud (90.1%).

The combined ratio (the sum of net claims and health services, general expenses and commissions, as a percentage of net earned premiums and health fees, without including Pacifico Vida) worsened from 96.3% in 2002 to 100.0% in the current year, mainly because of the higher provisions made for earthquake risks.

Operating expenses over net premiums decreased from 18.2% to 16.5% comparing 2002 and 2003, respectively.

Investments in real estate and financial assets were S/.1,317 million (US$380.4 million) at the end of the current period, increasing 26.1% from the year-ago balance.

As of December 31, 2003, total assets were S/.1,769 million (US$510.9 million) increasing 22.4% compared to the year-ago balances. At the end of the current period net equity amounted to S/.375.9 million (US$108.6 million) 10.2% over net equity at December 2002.

The Peruvian insurance market through November 30, 2003, had total premiums of US$799.8 million, 29.8% over premiums in the same period in 2002, growing mainly due to sales of SOAT and life annuities. For the eleven months of 2003, PPS's market share in total premiums was 30.2% (32.1% in the year-ago period), with the share in general risks and health lines being 33.0% (34.0% in 2002) and in life insurance and pension fund benefits lines of 26.4% (28.6% in the same period of 2002).

Banco de Crédito de Bolivia ("BCB"), Bolivia

Bolivian GDP grew 2.3% in the nine month period through September 2003 and is expected to grow 2.6% in full-year 2003, declining from 2.8% in 2002. Natural gas production grew almost 10%, and the agricultural sector by 4%, while, on the other hand, construction declined 9%. Economic activity in 2003 is being driven by exports, that grow 15%, where oil and gas increase 28%. It is expected that GDP will grow slightly over 3% in 2004, meaning that economic activity will continue weak, with domestic demand and consumption remaining stagnant. The government continues having fiscal difficulties. After the budget deficits of 8.5% of GDP in 2002 and 8% in 2003, a 6.5% is expected in 2004. New tax measures are being drafted as well as facilities to restructure companies. Additionally, the final treatment of the natural gas of Tarija will be defined in a referendum next March.

Inflation reached 3.9% in full-year 2003, compared to 2.5% in 2002. Devaluation continued at a slower pace with a 0.9% exchange rate increase in the last quarter and 4.1% in total 2003, reaching 7.81 Bolivianos per Dollar at December 31, 2003.

Loan volume in the banking system declined by 5.2% in the year, to end at US$2,552 million at December 2003. Loan quality improved from a past due ratio of 17.6% in December 2002, to 16.7% at December 2003, while coverage of past-due loans with provisions increased from 63.7% to 74.0%, respectively. Total deposits in the system amounted to US$2,713 million at December 2003, lower by 4.0% compared to the balance at September 2003, but are similar to deposits at December 2002.

BCB's market share in deposits at December 2003 was 12.5%, decreasing slightly from 12.7% at December 2002. In terms of loans, BCB had a 12.2% market share, and remains over the 11.7% share at December 2002. In this way, BCB remained in the fourth position of twelve banks in the system.

As of December 31, 2003, BCB had total loans of US$309.9 million which compares to US$313.3 million at the end of December 2002. At the end of 2003, BCB's past due loans reached US$64.2 million, or 20.7% of total loans, lower than 21.6% at December 2002. Coverage of past due loans with loan loss provisions was 76.7% as of December 2003, remaining almost unchanged during the last quarter, but increased from 62.5% in December 2002. Net equity at the Bolivian subsidiary amounted to US$56.3 million as of December 2003.

Cumulative through December 2003, US$20.6 million of loan loss provisions were charged against results, compared to US$30.2 million charged during 2002, jointly incurred by BCB and at the BCP level to cover BCB's impaired assets. In BCB's own records, net income was US$1.5 million in 2003, compared to US$22 thousand in 2002.

Banco Tequendama, Colombia

In the eleven month period through November 2003, Colombian manufacturing production grew 3.9%, confirming a mild economic recovery. The recovery is being led by exports (oil, coal and non-traditional exports) and by investments, while consumption remains depressed. GDP is expected to grow over 3% in total 2003 and also in 2004. In full-year 2002 GDP grew 1.7%.

Since the referendum seeking spending cuts, held in October 25, did not win approval, Congress had to pass certain alternative tax measures. A special wealth tax has been imposed, and the rate of the banking debit tax has been raised, but the increase of the value added tax was not accepted. The deficit remains under control, with a target of 2.8% for full-year 2003, under the 3.6% of 2002, and is expected to decrease to 2.5% in 2004.

Following regional trends the exchange rate appreciated during the fourth quarter 2003, where a 3.8% revaluation led to an exchange rate of Col$2,781 per US$1 at the end of December 2003. During total 2003, the exchange rate revalued 2.9%, compared to a devaluation of 25% in 2002. The Central Bank has announced various measures to stop the appreciation of the Peso, but it decreased to Col$2,715 during January 2004 and remains under Col$2,800, so it is expected that it will not have a major change during 2004.

In fourth quarter 2003 prices increased 1.0%, and 6.5% in total 2003. Annual inflation exceeded the official inflation target of between 5 to 6%, although it continues the downward trend of recent years. Inflation is expected to continue decreasing aided by the appreciating exchange rate, fiscal controls and by higher economic activity.

Banking system statistics show that loans increased from US$14.4 billion at December 2002, to US$15.6 billion at the close of November 2003, with the past-due ratio improving from 12.7% to 10.9%, respectively. The coverage ratio of loan provisions over bad loans also improved, from 61.9% at December 2002 to 66.0% in November 2003. Total deposits in the banking entities were US$19.8 billion at the end of November 2003, increasing from US$19.2 billion at December 2002, following a recovery noted in recent months.

Banco Tequendama's loan market share, as of November 2003, was 1.48%, slightly over 1.43% obtained in December 2002. At the same dates, deposit market share increased to 0.83% from 0.74%.

As of December 31, 2003, Banco Tequendama's loans were US$232.1 million, increasing 9.6% compared to US$211.7 million as of December 2002. At the end of December 2003, deposits totaled US$187.5 million, 21.7% over US$154.1 million at year-end 2002. At December 31, 2003, the bank's net equity amounted to US$29.1 million according to Credicorp's accounting records.

The past due loan ratio was 1.1% in December 2003, improving from 1.2% at the end of third quarter 2003 and from 4.3% at December 2002, while coverage with provisions was 238.2%, compared to 191.0% and 69.5%, respectively.

B. BANCO DE CREDITO DEL PERU AND SUBSIDIARIES (“BCP”)

NET INCOME

Consolidated net income in the year ended December 31, 2003 was S/.308.8 million (US$89.2 million), 32.7% over net income of S/.232.7 million (US$67.2 million) in 2002, resulting in S/.0.26 and S/.0.19 per share, respectively. Net income increased in 2003 compared to the prior year principally due to higher non-financial income and lower loan loss provisions, which offset the loss from inflation exposure and non-recurring expenses of the merger of BSCH-Peru and Solucion Financiera de Credito, that reached S/.65.2 million (US$18.8 million).

NET INTEREST INCOME

Interest income, net of interest payments, in 2003 reached S/.1.2 billion (US$334.1 million), increasing 3.3% compared to net interest income in 2002. Net interest income grew mainly due to the increase in average interest earning assets which offset decreased interest margins.

During 2003, the net interest margin was 5.42%, decreasing from 5.67% in 2002, mostly due to lower loan rates and returns on invested funds, which was partly offset by lower funding costs, while a general excess of liquid funds continued.

NON-INTEREST INCOME

Non-interest income, including fee revenue and other non-interest items, in full-year 2003 amounted to S/.917.9 million (US$265.1 million), 14.8% higher than income of S/.799.9 million (US$231.0 million) in 2002, mostly due to higher fees on banking services and recoveries of charged-off accounts.

In 2003, fees from banking services amounted to S/.648.3 million (US$187.2 million), 11.6% higher than in 2002, mostly due to increases in account maintenance, brokerage fees and credit card fees.

In the year, fees on the most important banking services had the following growth rates:

(In constant S/. Mn.)	2002	2003	Growth
Contingent credits	28.4	31.3	10.0%
Foreign Trade	32.6	32.9	1.0%

In the fourth quarter of 2003, securities transactions resulted in a gain of S/.7.2 million (US$2.1 million), decreasing compared to gains of S/.31.1 million (US$10.2 million) in the prior year. In year 2003 a decrease in gains was due to lower value of long term positions on mutual funds, while in 2002 gains grew from the sale of fixed income securities and the overall increase in stock quotes. The general index of the Lima Stock Exchange increased 74.9% in total 2003, compared to 18.3% in the prior year.

Gains from foreign exchange operations, which are the result of the foreign exchange buy-sell margin, was S/.77.8 million (US$22.5 million) in 2003, slightly lower than revenue in 2002, mainly due to decreased traded volumes and margins due to the low volatility in the foreign exchange market.

The Other Income caption, that mainly registers reversals of prior year expenses and provisions and recoveries of certain operating costs, increased from S/.109.8 million (US$31.7 million) in 2002 to S/.184.6 million (US$53.3 million) in the current year, mainly from the recovery of charged-off accounts and excess provisions.

II.4 OTHER NON-INTEREST EXPENSES

Non-interest expenses during 2003 were S/.1,297.3 million (US$374.6 million), 5.3% over those of 2002, mostly due to non-recurrent expenses related to the merger of BSCH-Peru and Solución Financiera de Credito. Adjusted operating expenses, that exclude provisions for assets received in lieu of loan repayment, non-recurring expenses and employee profit sharing expenses, reached S/.1,060.7 million (US$306.3 million) in 2003, decreasing from S/.1,070.4 million (US$309.1 million) in year 2002.

In 2003, approximately 40% of non-interest expenses were attributable to employee salaries and other expenses related to personnel. This concept decreased 3.6% to S/.525.0 million (US$151.6 million) when compared to 2002. At the end of 2003 the number of employees stood at 7,530, decreasing from 7,671 at December 2002 (without including 685 employees at BSCH-Perú), mainly due to sales personnel of Solucion Financiera transferred to a subsidiary of Credicorp.

General and Administrative expenses, which represented 32% of non-interest expenses, reached S/.409.8 million (US$118.3 million) in 2003, increasing 3.1% when compared to expenses in the prior year, mainly due to increased systems and operating charges.

In this quarter, the most significant general and administrative expenses were:

(In constant S/. Mn.)	2002	2003	Chnge.
Office supplies and operating costs	49.4	53.3	7.8%
Communications	38.3	38.2	-0.2%

Other G&A	16.4	19.0	15.6%
Total G&A	397.4	409.8	3.1%

The Other caption within Other Non-Interest Expenses, decreased from S/.128.4 million (US$37.1 million) in 2002 to S/.119.3 million (US$34.4 million) in the year, mainly due to lower provisions for contingencies.

The ratio of adjusted operating expenses (determined by excluding provisions for assets received in lieu of loan repayment, employee profit sharing expense and non-recurring expenses) as a percentage of average total assets, improved from 4.5% in 2002 to 4.3% in the current year.

Adjusted operating expenses, as a percentage of total income (excluding non-recurring income), also improved from 55.8% to 51.9% when comparing 2002 and 2003, respectively.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Total assets of BCP reached S/.23.2 billion (US$6.7 billion) at the end of December 2003, decreasing 11.0% with respect to the year-ago balance. The decrease is mainly because during 2003 the positive impact of BSCH-Peru's volume included in December 2002 was lost. Consolidated total loans were S/.14,204 million (US$4,102 million) at the end of December 2003, decreasing 11.0% compared to December 2002. At December 31, 2003, the loan portfolio, net of provisions, represented 56.4% of total assets, higher than 55.6% at December 2002. At the end of 2003, the Nuevos Soles portion of the loan portfolio was 17.7%, over 15.2% as of December 2002.

As of December 31, 2003 total deposits were S/.19,559 million (US$5,648 million), decreasing 12.0% compared to year-end 2002 deposits. During 2003, time deposits decreased by 16.2%, savings deposits 11.3%, and demand deposits by 3.5%. Deposits denominated in Nuevos Soles were 23.8% of total deposits, increasing over 21.8% at the end of December 2002.
