... with high growth potential

The Consumer in Lima Is Getting Wealthier

- Consumers in the top two levels have seen substantial improvement in income.
- Between 2003 and 2008, 12% of the population of Lima left the bottom two socioeconomic levels. Level C is the most dynamic.

Peruvian capital markets continue growing ...

Private Pension Funds (US$ MM)

Mutual Funds (US$ MM)

An important disintermediation of the banking system has taken place.

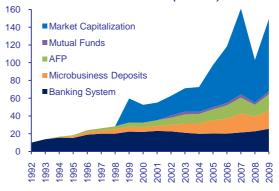

Private Pension funds and Mutual Funds dropped in 2008 and recovered in 2009 as a consequence of global market values, though real growth in 2009 is also evident.

Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

This material includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All statement other than statements of historical information provided herein are forward-looking and may contain information about financial results, economic conditions, trends and known uncertainties.

The Company cautions readers that actual results could differ materially from those expected by the Company, depending on the outcome of certain factors, including, without limitation: (1) adverse changes in the Peruvian economy with respect to the rates of inflation, economic growth, currency devaluation, and other factors, (2) adverse changes in the Peruvian political situation, including, without limitation, the reversal of market-oriented reforms and economic recovery measures, or the failure of such measures and reforms to achieve their goals, and (3) adverse changes in the markets in which the Company operates, including increased competition, decreased demand for financial services, and other factors. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof.

The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly the result of any revisions to these forwardlooking statements which may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof, including, without limitation, changes in the Company's business strategy or planned capital expenditures, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
